

Sixth Form Trip to Lincoln Crown Court

The Sixth Form students who study Law are given the opportunity to visit the Lincoln Crown Court. This invaluable insight into the daily workings of the judicial system is advantageous to their coursework, linking into the curriculum. The students have the opportunity to speak with court staff members prior to the court sitting asking pertinent questions linked to their studies. The students can draw from the experience and this results in depth coursework being submitted. The students thoroughly enjoy the visits and listening to the cases, which are varied.

