Dear Parent/Carer

As you may be aware, the National Education Union (NEU) have confirmed that its members will be striking over pay on three more days in March. I am writing to reassure you about what this means and how it will impact your child.

Currently, strikes that will impact our academy are scheduled to take place on the below dates:

- Wednesday 1 March (East Midlands, West Midlands, Eastern)
- Wednesday 15 March (whole country strike)
- Thursday 16 March (whole country strike)

Striking is the right of every teacher who is part of a union and is a personal choice which we respect as an academy and Trust. As the academy's Principal, the safety and wellbeing of our students is my top priority. As we have a high proportion of academy staff who are members of the NEU, there will not be enough staff for us to safely welcome all students on site, making it challenging for us to keep the academy fully open on strike days.

As a consequence, for the next day of industrial action next Wednesday, the academy will only be open for the groups below:

- Students in year 11 who are studying Food Preparation & Nutrition
- Students in year 13 who are studying Applied Science
- Students who are classed as vulnerable
- Students whose parents are classed as critical workers and wish their child to attend should complete the following form by clicking here.

Sadly, on this occasion, we will be closed to anyone who does not receive a direct invitation to attend.

I am sorry that this is the case, but I am sure you understand that the industrial action relates to important education funding issues nationally – rather than anything at a school or local level.

We will continue to communicate with you and keep you updated on the arrangements or any changes to the planned strike action.

Early next week, I will also send out details of online resources your children should complete at home when they are unable to attend school.

Finally, I want to thank you for being so supportive as part of the school community in what continues to be a challenging period. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us on admin@skegnessacademy.org

Yours sincerely

Mr Todd Johnson
Senior Executive Principal
