Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Crime Awareness Day – Monday 2 December

A team from the 'Prison Me No Way' Trust are visiting the Skegness Academy as part of the year nine Life Skills programme. Students will be able to participate in a number of workshops throughout the day.

The No Way Trust is a national educational charity set up in 1995 by prison officers who wanted to make an impact on the lives of young people and turn them away from crime and its consequences using highly innovative educational techniques.

This is a superb presentation which was well received by our students last year. It describes the realities of prison life rather than the image which appears in the media. The programme is designed to make young people think seriously about the repercussions of carrying out criminal activity and also gives good insight into the work of the prison officer, one of our key uniformed public services.

The sessions include topics around domestic abuse, what life is like in prison, the danger of electricity and power lines, knife crime, the impact one punch can have and County Lines.

If you have any issues or concerns, please email me at cmitchell@skegnessacademy.org and I will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Yours sincerely

Miss C Mitchell
