You need to watch these before it will show you your homework.

The screenshot displays the Sparx Maths user interface. On the left, a vertical sidebar contains three categories: 'Compulsory' (marked with a blue star), 'XP Boost' (marked with a lightning bolt icon), and 'Independent Learning' (marked with a document icon). Each category has a lock icon next to it. The main content area is titled 'Hey Alexa,' and includes a sub-header 'This is your personalised Compulsory homework. You need to answer every question correctly to complete it.' In the top right corner of the main area, a circular progress indicator shows '0/1'. Below this, a section titled 'Introducing Sparx Maths' is marked as 'Not started'. This section contains three task cards: 1) 'About Sparx Maths' with a play button icon and a 'Start >' button; 2) 'Try some questions' with a 'Locked' label and a lock icon; 3) 'Sparx Maths Tips' with a play button icon and a 'Locked' label with a lock icon.

You should now be able to see your homework in the compulsory section

The screenshot displays the Sparx Maths user interface. At the top, a blue navigation bar contains the 'Sparx Maths' logo on the left, and '10,070 XP Teacher' with a notification bell icon and a 'Menu' button with a hamburger icon on the right. Below the navigation bar, a light blue sidebar on the left lists four categories: 'Compulsory' (with a star icon), 'XP Boost' (with a lightning bolt icon), 'Target' (with a crown icon), and 'Independent Learning' (with a lightbulb icon). The main content area features a heading 'Hey Teacher,' followed by the text 'This is your personalised Compulsory homework. You need to answer every question correctly to complete it.' To the right of this text is a circular progress indicator showing '0/1'. Below this, a white card with an orange border displays 'Homework due Tuesday 13th September' with a dropdown arrow on the left and '16%' on the right.
